WOULD MAKE GIRL HEIR.

Vermont Woman Searches Boston for Mary Ellen O'Brien.

Boston, Oct. 20.—Mary Ellen O'Brien, aged 20, if she is still alive only needs to make her identity known to become an heiress. Eight years ago she left St. Vincent's home on Camden street, where she had been since the death of her mother, 15 years ago. She has not been heard from since.
Her aunt, Mrs. A. E. Bishop of Lyndonville, Vt., wants to make the young woman the beneficiary of her fortune, but has been unsuccessful in efforts to locate her. Tuesday Mrs. Bishop returned from Boston to her home after a careful search there for her missing relative. She has left the matter of further search and inquiry in the hands of Mrs. Thomas Trainor of 91 Clark street, Dorchester, who is a cousin of Miss O'Brien.

TWO EX-GOVERNORS THERE.

At the 10th Reunion of the Vermont Regimental Association.

Newport, Oct. 20.—The 15th reunion of the 9th Vermont Regimental association was held here yesterday in G. A. R. hall. The program consisted of a business meeting at 2 p. m., a banquet at 6 p. m., at which over 100 covers were laid and after the banquet a campfire in the hall.
The address of welcome was given by ex-Gov. George H. Prouty. Gen. Edward H. Ripley gave an address on "The Ninth Vermont at Harper's Ferry." General Ripley was the last colonel of the ninth. Short addresses were given by ex-Gov. Josiah Grout, ex-Lieut.-Gov. Z. M. Mansur and others. Governor Mead, who was expected, could not be present.

Barre lodge, No. 138, New England Order of Protection, will observe the 25th anniversary of the founding of the order at exercises to be held in the Howland hall Thursday evening, October 20.

The exercises will consist of a short program, with addresses by two prominent members of the supreme lodge, after which dancing will be indulged in till midnight.

Frederick Bisson of South Main street is exhibiting a twenty-five-cent piece, struck off in the year 1807, which he discovered a few days ago in a pile of refuse on the sidewalk near the old First National bank building at the corner of Main and Washington streets.

While walking past the place recently, Mr. Bisson saw what he supposed to be a button lying in the dirt. He picked it up and was surprised to find that it was a coin. With a little polishing, the denomination of the piece was easily distinguished, the date and the familiar figure of the goddess of liberty on one side, and the United States coat of arms on the reverse. The coin also bears the circle of stars and the Latin inscription, "E Pluribus Unum." Mr. Bisson intends to dispose of the quarter to some coin collector.

A dress rehearsal of "A Day at the Ranch" was held in the opera house last evening and, unlike the usual last rehearsal, this one was perfect. Everyone was ready and on time, no song or specialty needed a second trial and the whole performance went as it should with a paid audience present. Bruce's orchestra also came in for a lot of praise and was a great help and inspiration to the performers and the public certainly has a treat in store for them in the two performances. The caution will occupy the boxes in full dress uniform, which will add a lot to the gaiety of the evening. Nothing funnier than the pickaninnies and the comedians has ever been seen here and there will be plenty of fun. Big houses are assured and the show will be fine, and Hiawatha lodge, I. O. O. F., is already to be congratulated on its success on their first appearance before the public.

The supper served by the ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church last evening was attended by about 200 people, who were much pleased with the good things which were served. The menu comprised roast beef, pork, potatoes, gravy, cabbage, beet salad, pickles, rolls, lemon pie, pumpkin pie, cake, tea and coffee.

Dr. E. A. Bishop of Montpelier seminary gave a very interesting lecture before the brotherhood of St. Paul at the Methodist church last evening. Dr. Bishop visited Mexico City several weeks last summer. There was a large attendance of the members of the brotherhood, and at the monthly business meeting, which preceded the lecture, several new members were voted in.

The men of the First Baptist church wish to announce to the public that arrangements have been made to have the celebrated Duhar company appear at the Barre opera house Friday evening, November 11. What for? To give a grand concert, consisting of vocal quartet and solo, flute, piano and cello trios, reading by Harry Dunbar, and four men singing nearly two hundred bells. What a musical treat! When and where, did you say? Why, Friday evening, November 11, at the Barre opera house.

The ladies' aid society of St. Monica's church held a largely attended and successful supper and entertainment in the Woodmen's hall last evening. At the supper 250 people were served, and the menu was pronounced excellent. Following the supper the young people gave a delightful musical program, which was as follows: Instrumental duet, Miss Kathleen O'Leary and Alden Burke; piano solo, Master Eugene Loranger; piano solo with violin obligato, Masters Alden Burke and James Coyne; song, "The Merry Dancers," sixteen little girls; piano solo, Master Alden Burke; recitation, Master Louis O'Leary; piano solo, with violin accompaniment, Miss Kathleen O'Leary and James Coyne; song, Eugene Loranger; song, Miss Ruth Humphrey; song, James Canton.

The Presbyterian Sunday school will observe rally day next Sunday morning, and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance of the children and their parents.

Two of the new cars for the street railway are on their way and will probably reach here in a day or two. They are coming set up on a flat car and will be unloaded at Montpelier and taken to the car barn, where the trucks have been for some time.

On Saturday afternoon and evening, the attraction at the opera house will be Mr. John Meehan in the Harold McGrath comedy, "The Man on the Box."

Ever since its first production, with Henry E. Dixey in the leading role, this play has been a strong favorite with the theatregoers. It combines crisp, clean comedy with good drama, is a consistent well-written play, and can be seen again and again, each time with keen enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H.
